

Love You All Madly Jazz and Blues Portraits

by Terry Cryer

It is with great pleasure that RedHouse Originals present "Love You All Madly"; a touring exhibition of Terry Cryer's stunning photography. Terry Cryer has a way with a camera like nobody else. Timeless, intuitive, and alluring, his images tell stories that words could never define. His portraits of the great jazz and blues musicians of the 1950's capture the very essence of the time, giving the viewer a compelling insight into the major figures within this revolutionary movement.

"The Dean of UK jazz and blues photographers" Mojo Magazine

We are delighted to be able to offer this unique opportunity to view and purchase Terry's most iconic photographs at "Love You All Madly" which will be launched in his home city of Leeds. The exhibition will feature photographs spanning one of Terry's most productive periods. From his portraits of Louis Armstrong in Liverpool to Nat King Cole at The London Palladium, he was able to capture the defining images of some of the most important and iconic performers of all time. Terry shut down his darkroom many years ago and is now retired but RedHouse Originals is privileged to be able to exhibit some of the few remaining prints in circulation.

"His photographs are jazz classics" The Guardian

All the photographs in this exhibition are hand produced by Terry and are gold and selenium toned for archive permanence. Each specially developed print is a unique, handcrafted work of art, and each piece is hand signed and titled by Terry. "Love You All Madly" will open at Smokestack, Leeds. A private viewing will be held with Terry in attendance on Sunday 13th July from 3.00 - 9.30pm. This exclusive event will also feature music from blues and jazz aficionados Musica Del Alma. RedHouse Originals are proud to share in this illustrious work. We look forward to welcoming you.
